GET FIVE DEER

BAIRDS AND YOUNGS REVISIT MT. LASSEN, SHOOT MUCH GAME

A. L. Baird and wife and Dr. T. C. Young and wife arrived at home Saturday night from a four weeks' hunting and camping trip in Northern California. They went by way of Santa Cruz, Oakland, Sacramento and Chico to Chester on the slopes of Mt. Lassen, where they found their Indian guide, Reuben Gould, awaiting them. Reuben no longer depends on horses entirely for motive power in his trips as guide, but drives a fine new Buick. The four hunters (for the ladies were as enthusiastic sportsmen as their husbands) set up their camp in the wilds and were soon engaged in stalking game. In addition to much small game, 5 bucks, some of them five pointers, fell to their marksmanship. After enjoying this sport to the limit they returned to Chester, then started on the return trip by a roundabout way. They went first to Reno, Nevada, then to Truckee, Calif., Lake Tahoe and Carson City, Nevada. From the latter city they took their way to Mono Lake, stopping for a brief time at Fale's Hot Springs en route, then visited Tioga Lake, 9941 feet above sea level, where they caught many cut-throat trout. Over Tioga Pass they then went, into Yosemite, where they stopped at Camp Curry. The return trip was over the Valley Route.

Dr. Young and Mr. Baird brought home a generous supply of venison, which they divided out among their friends. They had the heads of the bucks mounted and have them in their homes.

Return From Canada

Dr. Henry R. Harrower and family have recently returned from a vacation trip in Canada, having visited at Calgary and at different points in Canada. They report a most enjoyable trip, but are more convinced than ever that Glendale is the real home city. According to Dr. Harrower there is to be an unusual influx of Canadians to Southern California this winter and many of them plan to come to Glendale. Upon their return the Harrower family was agreeably surprised to find Dr. C. W. Simonds and family of New York City awaiting their return. Dr. Simonds will locate in Pasadena.

New Realty Firm

Another real estate firm has been added to the list in Glendale, the new organization consisting of A. W. Woodmansee, O. L. Zook and L. F. Fisher, who will operate under the firm name and style of the Broadway Real Estate with offices at 118 East Broadway. These gentlemen have recently been associated with F. W. Pigg. The members of this firm are experienced in the realty game. Mr. Woodmansee is a district manager for the La Creole corporation of Memphis, Tenn., in charge of the Pacific coast states. Mr. Zook comes from Oklahoma and Mr. Fisher from Northern Nebraska.

Treated the Guests

Mr. and Mrs. George Ward of this city are spending two weeks at Ocean Park. On Labor Day they entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Addison, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sherman, Miss Myrtle Knapp and Miss Hamilton, all of Glendale. And the pleasing fact is also noted that Mr. Ward secured a good catch of fish treating the guests to the appetizing dish.

NEW STAGE LINES

H. A. WILSON, DR. LUSBY AND S. HAMILTON WILL OPERATE FOOTHILL STAGE LINE

H. A. Wilson, Dr. C. R. Lusby and Schuyler Hamilton have applied to the State Railroad Commission for a franchise to conduct an auto bus line between Pasadena and Pomona, along the Foothill boulevard via Monrovia, Covina. These gentlemen will begin to operate auto busses on this new line just as soon as the Railroad Commission gives its official answer.

The proposed Pasadena-Pomona stage line will connect with the Pasadena-Glendale, Santa Monica line which for more than a year has been operated by Mr. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson recently took over the local stage line in Hollywood, its run being between Universal City and Los Angeles.

REALTY BOARD

TO BE ORGANIZED IN GLENDALÉ FRIDAY NIGHT MEANS MUCH TO CITY

Before the week is closed the progressive city of Glendale will number among its substantial assets a permanently organized real estate exchange. And why should not this be so with a city that has the largest number of real estate transfers of any city in the country in proportion to its size and financial strength?

At a preliminary meeting of local realty men held not long ago the matter of organizing a Realty Exchange in this city was thoroughly gone over. A temporary organization was effected when Charles B. Guthrie was named as chairman and H. S. Bourne, secretary. At this same meeting a committee on permanent organization to submit constitution and by-laws was named consisting of the following: E. P. Hayward, chairman; John MacGregor and J. B. King to assist the temporary officers in this important matter. This committee is ready to report.

Next Friday, Sept. 10, a meeting is called of all the real estate men in this city to gather at the White Inn at 6:30 o'clock in the evening. A dinner will be served, after which the question to be considered will be taken up without further preliminaries and the present temporary organization made permanent by the adoption of a constitution and by-laws.

The temporary committee already has a bona fide list of fifty real estate firms of this city and when the membership roll is finally made up it will include at least seventy members. It is also proposed to elect directors and officers at this same meeting so that at the conclusion of this session Glendale will have a full-fledged organization of men which will be of untold benefit to this city and vicinity. It will put the real estate in Glendale and vicinity.

Rebekah Initiation

At a regular meeting of Carnation Rebekah Lodge, Number 257, three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order, Carnation Lodge putting on the initiatory degree. The candidates received were: Mrs. Anna Baines, Mrs. Laura Walcott and Miss Doris Ingle. Visitors from Taft, Calif., and Eastern lodges were present.

After conferring of the degree, the members were entertained in the dining hall, where light refreshments were served. The evening entertainment closed with Carnation Lodge extending a welcome to 111-A East Broadway to all resident and visiting Rebekahs in Glendale and vicinity.

More Nebraskans

Arthur Koenigstein, former county attorney of Madison county, Nebraska, has recently arrived in Glendale and will hereafter make this city his home. Jack Koenigstein, a brother, who is a prominent lawyer in that section of Nebraska, is also expected here within a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. John Koenigstein, the parents, and former pioneers of Northern Nebraska, have been residents of Southern California for several years.

TRACTOR SHOW

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS BEING MADE ON PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS

Satisfactory progress is being made on the preparation for the coming National Tractor and Implement Show, which opens in Verdugo Woodlands on Monday, September 20th. The city has all the 2-inch pipe required laid and the grounds are being watered daily. The hauling of sawdust to cover the exhibition spaces is proceeding satisfactorily, the wiring of the grounds is all provided for so it can be commenced at an instant's notice and the temporary bridge required will be built soon. Chairmen of the various committees are to have a meeting soon and make final arrangements to successfully carry out Glendale's part of the arrangements.

Stafford Harlow, secretary of the Glendale branch of the Automobile Club of Southern California, informs the Evening News that the signs pointing the way to the Tractor Show grounds have been all prepared and will be put up on all roads leading thereto about two days before the date of the Show's opening.

EARTHQUAKE IN ITALY

THREE TOWNS WIPED OUT; MANY PERSONS KILLED; ENORMOUS PROPERTY DAMAGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ROME, Italy, Sept. 8.—The casualty list from yesterday's earthquake in the north-central districts of Italy continued to grow as reports were received here today from the devastated region.

Scores of persons were killed and hundreds injured, according to reports. Property damage was enormous.

Relief parties have been sent out to the damaged regions. The towns of Quercin, Molasso, and Tarasco have been completely wiped out.

Villa Collemandia was completely destroyed. The town had 2000 population. Fifty-seven bodies had been recovered from the ruins at Pisa, where the famous leaning tower was badly damaged and in danger of falling.

Numerous famous cathedrals were badly damaged, some being shaken down.

The shock, which was centered in the province of Massacarrara, lasted twenty seconds.

U. S. WITHHOLDS RECOGNITION

MUST BE ASSURED OF FAIR TREATMENT FOR AMERICAN OIL INTERESTS IN MEXICO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The United States will not recognize the Obregon government of Mexico until it receives assurances of fair treatment for American oil interests in Mexico, it was authoritatively stated here today.

COLONEL TRIED BY COURT MARTIAL

PROVOST MARSHAL OF GALVESTON DISTRICT CHARGED WITH MISCONDUCT IN ARREST OF EDITOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

GALVESTON, Texas, Sept. 8.—Col. Wm. Mayfield, provost marshal of the Galveston military district, was being tried by court martial today on charges of misconduct for the alleged attempted arrest of G. V. Sanders, editor of the Houston Press. Brigadier General Wollers testified that he had ordered Mayfield to arrest Sanders if the editor came to Galveston.

"I regard Sanders as a dangerous agitator who was inciting the people of this district to insurrection," General Wollers said.

PRIMARY ELECTION RESULTS

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL OF ARIZONA HAS NO OPPOSITION; GOV. ODDIE LEADS IN NEVADA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 8.—Senator Marcus Smith was leading for the Democratic Senatorial nomination, on the basis of incomplete returns from yesterday's election. The Republican Senatorial nomination was in doubt between Ralph Cameron and E. S. Clark.

Gov. Thomas Campbell was unopposed for the Republican nomination for governor. Mitt Simms and Mulford Winsor were running a close race for the Democratic nomination for governor.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 8.—James Walsh was leading Richard Lang for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in incomplete returns from yesterday's election. Lieut.-Gov. Channing Cox was unopposed for the Republican nomination for governor.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 8.—Senator Irving Lenroot was leading Jas. Thompson, the LaFollette candidate, for the Republican Senatorial nomination.

RENO, Nev., Sept. 8.—Former Governor Oddie appeared to have received the Republican Senatorial nomination on returns from yesterday's election. Senator Henderson, Democrat, was unopposed.

MAC SWINEY'S RELEASE PROBABLE

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The British government today announced its willingness to release Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, if given guarantee from responsible Irish sources that the murder of policemen in Ireland will cease.

RIOTING IN PENNSYLVANIA COAL REGIONS

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 8.—Rioting broke out in the anthracite coal district here today. For a half hour a large number of miners battled at Pittston before being subdued by state troops. No one was seriously injured, although many miners received wounds and bruises.

POSSES HUNT CRIMINAL

MILL VALLEY, Cal., Sept. 8.—Posses were scouring the hillsides and watching ferry boats today for Samuel Thurston, who last night shot and critically injured Mrs. E. A. Upton, divorced wife of a prominent Oakland physician.

AFTER 13 YEARS IN GLENDALÉ UNION HIGH, HE GOES TO COACHELLA

Prof. Harry L. Howe is still at his home, 446 Burchett street, though he has made more than one trip recently to his new place of work, the Coachella Valley Union High School, near the town of that name and also very near to his acreage. He has the work well in hand for the commencement of school on Monday, Sept. 20th, he says. Misses Martha Brown and Bessie Jones, also teachers in Glendale High last year, are on Prof. Howe's force of instructors in the new location.

Prof. Howe came to Glendale in 1907 from Hillsdale, Mich., and entered the work as vice-principal of the High School, then located in the old frame building at the corner of Brand and Broadway, where the First National Bank building now stands. There were 91 pupils that year with 6 regular teachers and one for part time. Glendale had been a city then for only a year and most of its population was east of Isabel street, so the location seemed to be away out in the country to the majority of the pupils. The inhabitants then numbered about 2000. Now the count is fully 20,000 and the High School attendance has kept pace with the increase, being more than 10 times what it was then, or nearly 1000 in the year 1920.

Mrs. Howe and the little daughter will not go to Coachella till some time in October.

Autos Collide

Dr. A. O. Dieterich in his Oakland coupe and a Mr. Holton, driving a Buick, came together on Los Feliz Road near San Fernando Road yesterday about 2 p. m. The former was going west and the latter, driving south, turned in on Los Feliz, headed east, and the two machines came together with considerable force. Dr. Dieterich's machine had the right running board crumpled up and the body dented, but the other machine suffered little damage. More auto accidents occur at or near this busy crossing than at any other spot in the city of Glendale.

Progress on Hospital

A. L. Baird, who has had much to do with selling stock for the new Glendale Research Hospital, was greatly rejoiced when he got back from his recent hunting trip to note that work had begun in earnest. The foundation is almost completed. Great piles of lumber are rising and the hollow tile for the walls is promised very soon. The men are ready and waiting to begin laying the tile and when it begins to arrive, the walls will go up rapidly. That 194 feet frontage of foundation looks quite imposing and of course when the long walls begin to arise on it the effect will be still more pronounced. Kent & Son, the contractors, are doing their utmost to speed construction.

Go East

Mr. and Mrs. David Francey of 136 N. Kenwood departed today for an extended three months' visit with relatives and friends in Iowa and Illinois. This is their first visit back east since 1911. They will visit a daughter in Illinois and Mr. Francey's sister in Salem, Iowa. A good part of the time will be spent around the old farm home town of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

OUR NEW PARK

TREES GROWING BEAUTIFULLY. A PERMANENT PLEASURE GROUND ASSURED

Considerable fun has been poked at Glendale's new park, which was dedicated with impressive ceremonies not so many months ago, but the deriders should happen around that way and see how beautifully the trees are growing before they get too hilarious over it. When the Patterson avenue extension is put through along the south side of this park and the trees make a larger growth, the beauty of the spot will begin to dawn upon the beholders. Of course some buildings are needed and some fancy landscape garden work but this will come in good time. Glendale has gone too long without a park and this start should be approved by all. And it is but a start for there is no doubt that other and larger ones will be provided as time goes on.

H. S. INSTRUCTORS

NAMES OF MEN AND WOMEN WHO WILL TEACH VARIOUS BRANCHES IN G. U. H. S.

With a much larger enrollment than last year in Glendale Union High School and the additional accommodations not yet ready for classes, teaching starts off under difficulties, yet all are trying to make the best of it. PRESBYTERIAN MEN

OF GLENDALÉ IN SOCIAL GATHERING RAISE $1500 TO CLEAR DEBT

A most interesting and profitable meeting of the men of the Glendale Presbyterian church was held last evening in the parlors of the church. Some forty men gathered and partook of an appetizing dinner arranged by the ladies of the church. Two members of the Orpheus Club rendered pleasing vocal selections. After the meal Harry Howe called the men to order and told of a deficit which it was desired to lift from the church. It did not take very long before the required amount of $1500 was raised and of course every one present felt mighty good over the successful outcome of the evening's gathering. Rev. W. E. Edmonds, the pastor, has not yet returned from his vacation.

STUDY ECONOMICS

S. GIRLS MASTERING PROBLEMS OF HOUSING AND NUTRITION

According to statistics compiled by Bureau of Education, there are 19,000 American girls pursuing study of home economics in schools and colleges, and these students will ultimately bring with them the scope of their influence as teachers approximately 1,000,000 pupils, as home economics education is in the fifth grade in the more progressive cities. It includes foods, nutrition, textiles and clothing, construction and furnishings, household management and sanitation, child care and training, household administration, and financial management.

Present-day conditions make such training imperative, and Mrs. Marietta Calvin, specialist in home Economics, explains this by calling attention to the fact that women were formerly producers of the so-called "home goods" for their households. They carded, spun, and wove both cotton and wool; they worked with flax in the preparation of flax and production of linen. Even the cloth that was bought and sold was produced in other homes, not in factories. Every housewife was a judge of the quality of cloth because she made it, directly or indirectly, been connected with the making of cloth. Garments were made either by the home worker, the employed seamstress, or the local and often itinerant tailor.

Bed linen, blankets, and coverlets were homemade, and instead of down comforters covered with thin silk or calico there was the patched quilt for comfort made from numerous small and useless bits of cloth and lined with carded cotton or wool or even with feathers from the home-made ducks.

With the coming of machinery the clothing industries left the homes, and gradually even the recognition of certain fabrics waned and a generation of women came who neither knew cloth nor were they skillful in use of the needle or machine. At the same time many women became wage earners, and hence no longer vitally interested in the affairs of the home.

HIGH SCHOOLS

FACTS OF INTEREST CONCERNING THESE INSTITUTIONS IN UNITED STATES

Now that Glendale's High School has just thrown open its doors for the fall and winter terms it is interesting to note some of the facts that have just been given out by the United States Bureau of Education. It is also pleasing to note that included in these statements are some favorable points for the State of California. This state ranks second in the country as to the largest number of libraries; ranks first as to the largest attended high school, the Polytechnic evening high school of Los Angeles having an enrollment of 8,440, and this state ranks second as to the largest salaries paid high school principals, only being exceeded by the District of Columbia.

Other facts include the following: In 1890 only 9,120 high school teachers were employed, but in 1918 there were 81,034.

The number of women teachers has been increasing since 1902, and at the present time only about 34 per cent of all high school teachers are men.

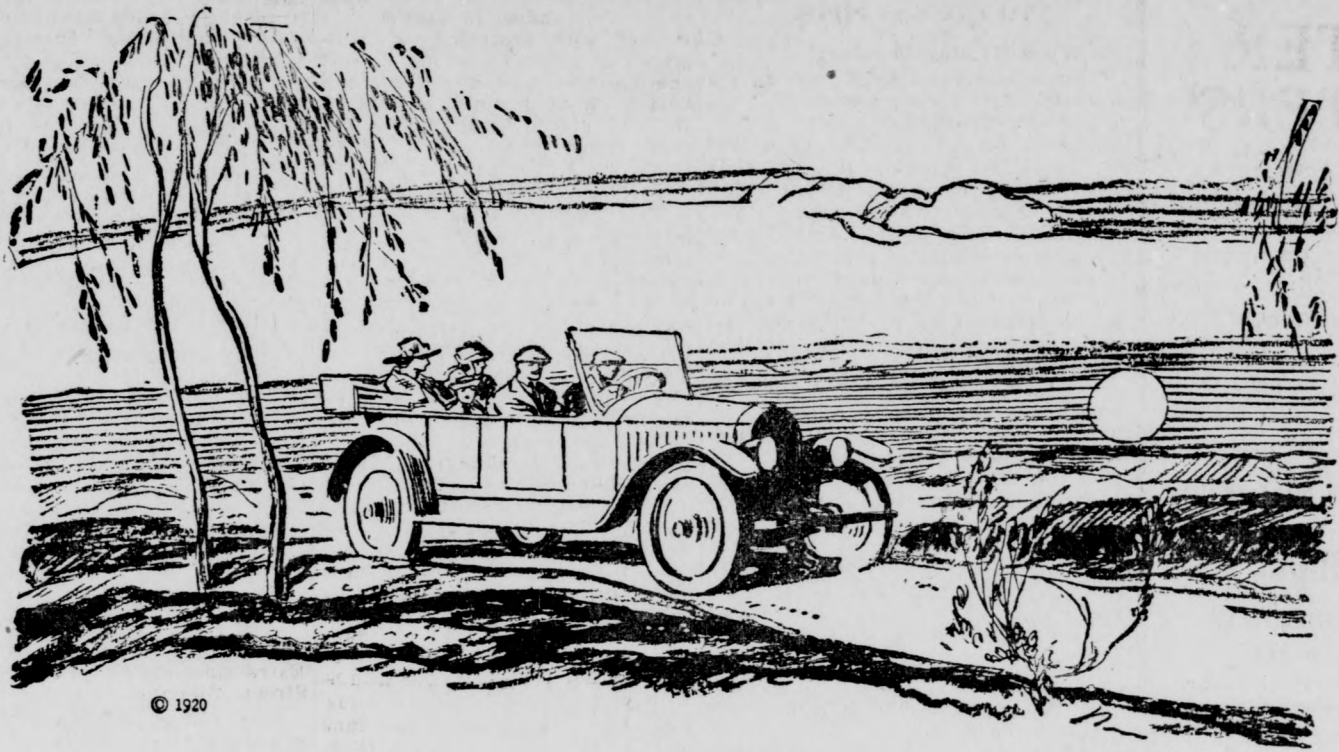

Nevada has fewer students to a teacher than any other State in the Union, and Georgia has a greater number of students per teacher than any other State.

Texas leads the states in the per cent of high school graduates who continue their studies in some kind of school. North Carolina comes second and Kentucky third.

One-tenth of all the people of the United States are now receiving the benefits of a high school education, but only 14 per cent of those entering the first grade complete a high school course. More than one-fourth of the youth of Vermont are now completing a high school course, in Maine 23 per cent reach this standard, while in South Carolina only 1.44 per cent of the youth attain this end.

THE women should certainly be thankful for the automobile. It has given them a chance to see a lot more of their husbands.

II

But it has done a great deal more than that.

It has brought people closer together, given them new interests, swept away old prejudices.

What affects one man now generally affects a good many of his neighbors in the same way. And they have a better chance to get together and talk things over.

III

It's had its effect on the tire business.

When automobiles were new people were willing to buy any kind of a tire. Now they're beginning to insist on knowing what they are getting.

And the more they insist, the better it will be for us.

IV

We want our customers to know what they are getting.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires—so there will be no doubt about it.

CARNEGIE ON WEALTH

I was born in poverty and would not exchange its sacred memories with the richest millionaire's son who ever breathed. What does he know about the mother or father? These are mere names to him. Give me the life of a boy whose mother is nurse, seamstress, washerwoman, cook, teacher, angel and saint all in one, and whose father is guide, exemplar and friend. No servants to come in between. These are the boys who are born to the best fortune.

Some men think that poverty is a dreadful burden, and that wealth leads to happiness. What do they know about it? They know only one side; they imagine the other. I have lived both, and I know there is very little in wealth that can add to human happiness beyond the small comforts of life. Millionaires who laugh are very rare. My experience is that wealth is apt to take the smiles away.—Andrew Carnegie.

The National Association of Dancing Masters was in session again, and as usual we were regaled with solemn utterances concerning the "shimmy" and "jazz" and other things with strange names. The "cat step" is the latest. It is offered as a substitute for some of the dances that have fallen into disrepute. The dancing masters mean well, no doubt, but it has not been noticeable that their influence has elevated the art as practiced in the ordinary ballroom.

The fact that no great degree of skill is required has the advantage that it permits a much larger number of persons to indulge in dancing than would be the case if the steps were hard to learn. This adds to the profits of the dancing masters. But there are many persons who would like to see ballroom dancing restored to its former position as a fine art marked by grace and stateliness and beauty.

The grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns, shall have the right, subject to such regulations as are now or hereafter may be in force, to make all necessary excavations in said highway for the construction and repair of said pipe lines, traps and manholes.

That the pipes to be laid and maintained under said franchise shall be of steel, of good workmanship and of an internal diameter of not less than twelve (12) inches nor more than sixteen (16) inches.

specifications and explanations, showing the necessity for the same. That during the laying or repairing of any such pipes, any trench or excavation made for such purpose shall, from sunset to sunrise, be barricaded and protected by lanterns placed at distances of not more than one hundred feet apart, along such trench or excavation, one of which shall be placed in the center of any cross street fronting on said San Fernando Road, at the point where said work is in progress.

That every pipe line constructed, maintained or repaired under the provisions of this franchise shall be constructed, maintained and repaired in accordance and conformity with all of the ordinances, rules and regulations now in force and that may hereafter be adopted and prescribed by the Board of Trustees of said City of Glendale.

That the work of laying or repairing such pipes or other appliances shall be conducted with the least possible hindrance to the use of said highways for the purposes of travel, and as soon as the laying or repairing of any pipe or appliance is completed, all portions of the highways which have been excavated or otherwise injured thereby shall be placed in as good condition as the same were before the laying of such pipes, to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees of said City of Glendale. That any damage or injury suffered by any person, by reason of any excavation being improperly guarded during said work, or by any cause whatever in connection with construction, laying or repair of said pipe lines, or pipe, shall be borne by the grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns.

That the City of Glendale reserves the right to change the grade of said street or any portion thereof over which this franchise shall be granted, and the grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns shall at once change the location of all pipes and other appliances laid under said franchise so as to conform to such change of grade. That if any portion of said highway shall be damaged by reason of leaks in any pipe laid under said franchise, or by any other cause, the grantee of such franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns, shall, at his, its or their own expense repair any such damage and put said highway in as good condition as before such leak, or other damage, to the satisfaction of the Board of Trustees of said City.

That if the grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns, shall fail to comply with any of the instructions of said Board of Trustees with respect to the location of any portion of said system of pipes and pipe lines, or the repair of any damage to highways, within ten days after the service of written notice upon said grantee, his, its or their successors or assigns, requiring compliance therewith, then said Board of Trustees may immediately do whatever work is necessary to carry out said instructions, at the cost and expense of said grantee, his, its or their successors or assigns, which costs, by the acceptance of said franchise, said grantee, his, its or their successors or assigns agree to pay upon demand.

That the work of constructing and laying said system of pipes and pipe lines, shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four months from the granting of said franchise.

That the said grantee of said franchise, his, its or their successors or assigns shall, during the life of said franchise, pay to the City of Glendale, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent of the gross annual receipts of such grantee and his or its successors or assigns arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise. No percentage shall be paid for the first five years succeeding the date of said franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be payable annually.

And it shall be the duty of the grantee of said franchise and of his or its successors or assigns, to file with the Clerk of said City of Glendale at the expiration of six years from the date of granting said franchise, and at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, a statement, verified by the oath of the manager or presiding officer of said grantee or his or its successors or assigns, showing in detail the total gross receipts and gross earnings collected or received by said grantee or his or its successors or assigns during the preceding twelve months, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise, and within ten days after the time for filing the aforesaid statement, it shall be the duty of said grantee and his or its successors or assigns to pay to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale the aggregate sum of the said percentage upon the amount of the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise, and if the amount paid is incorrect, in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, they may order the payment of such additional sum as they may find due hereunder, and if not paid, the same may be collected by suit. And any neglect, omission or refusal by said grantee or his or its successors or assigns to file said verified statement, or to pay the said percentage of the said gross annual receipts at the times or in the manner hereinbefore provided, shall ipso facto work a forfeiture of said franchise and all of its rights thereunder, to the City of Glendale.

That said grantee or his or its successors or assigns shall not sell, transfer, assign or lease said franchise or any part thereof, or any of the rights or privileges granted thereby, except by a duly executed instrument in writing filed in the office of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, and nothing in said franchise contained shall be construed to grant to said grantee or his or its successors or assigns any right to sell, transfer, or assign or lease said franchise or any of the rights or privileges thereby granted except in the manner aforesaid.

Nor shall gas or oil to be carried by the said grantee, its successors or assigns through the pipe line for the construction of which this franchise is granted be disposed of directly or indirectly to any competitor of said grantee or its associated or subsidiary companies, operating in said City of Glendale, and be sold therein, except by the consent of the Board of Trustees of said City.

That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise shall thereupon immediately ipso facto effect a forfeiture thereof, and the said City, by its Board of Trustees, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee or his or its successors or assigns from further use of the highways of said City under said franchise; and said grantee or his or its successors or assigns shall thereupon and immediately surrender all rights in and to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids in writing will be received at the office of the City Clerk of said City of Glendale for said franchise up to 8:30 o'clock in the afternoon of the 30th day of September, 1920.

That the bids received will be opened at that time; that all bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States; and that the franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who shall make the highest cash bid thereof, provided only, that at the time of opening said bids, any responsible person, firm or corporation, present or represented, may bid for said franchise a sum not less than ten per cent above the highest sealed bid thereof, and that said bid so made may be raised not less than ten per cent by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded by said Board of Trustees to the highest bidder thereof in gold coin of the United States, and provided further that the Board of Trustees reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Each sealed bid must be accompanied with cash, or a certified check, payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid will be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith; and the successful bidder must deposit at least ten per cent of the amount of his bid with the Clerk of said City before said franchise will be struck off to him, and if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately his bid will not be received and will be considered as void and said franchise will then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid thereof, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned. Said procedure will be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per cent of the amount of his bid, as herein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the City Clerk within twenty-four hours after the acceptance of his bid the remaining ninety per cent of the amount thereof, and in case he or it fails to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made will be forfeited, and the award of said franchise will be void, and said franchise will then and there, by the said Board of Trustees, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder thereof, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided, and in case said bidder fails to deposit with the City Clerk the remaining ninety per cent of his bid within twenty-four hours after its acceptance, the award to him of said franchise will be set aside, and the deposit theretofore made by him will be forfeited and no further proceedings for the sale of said franchise will be had until the same shall be readvertised for sale.

Notice is also hereby given that the successful bidder for said franchise must, within five days after said franchise is awarded to him or it, file with the said Board of Trustees a bond running to said City in the penal sum of One Thousand ($1000) Dollars with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Board of Trustees, conditioned that said bidder will construct said pipe lines and shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. If said bond be not so filed, the award of said franchise will be set aside, and any money paid therefor will be forfeited. The Board of Trustees reserve the right to grant similar franchise over said street to any other person or company.

A Real Man

You may never get to be president of the United States, son, you may never be the head of a big business and sit at a mahogany desk and clip coupons, you may never be a hero in war or a fad in literature; but you can be greater than any of these—you can be a Real Man.

And the beauty of it is that, in regard to this one most important attainment in the world, you actually have the whole matter in your own hands. You can be a Real Man if you wish. Nobody can stop you. Heredity cannot trip you. And the circumstances in which you are placed make not the slightest difference.

As for being elected governor, maybe you can make it, maybe not. As for succeeding in business, that is never an absolute surety. Perhaps you can be healthy and strong, but there's always a possibility of accident or disease to interfere with this. You may win the woman you want, and you may lose her.

There's chance and luck in everything; that is, in everything but one. You can be a Real Man if you want to hard enough, and all hell and heredity, bad luck and misfortune cannot defeat you.

Isn't it a comforting thing to know that there is one thing in the world that's a certainty? And isn't it doubly heartening to realize that this one thing is the greatest and most worth-while thing of all things?

What is a Real Man?

A Real Man is a man who honestly tries to live up to the best he knows.

That's all. You see, it's simple. Like all the great things of life, it is plain as a pikestaff.

Just to know what is the best is not enough; many a cad and a coward knows, but he doesn't do.

And to feel, to realize, to appreciate, to love the best, does not imply that you are a Real Man. Many a drunkard and many a shiftless profligate is a mighty feeler.

A Real Man is one who responds nobly to circumstances. The harder the knocks and the more discouraging the situation, the brighter he shines.

A Real Man respects himself. Self-reverence comes very close to God-reverence. A Real Man has certain personal sanctities, of body, of thought, of feeling. The fine flavor of reverence is always about him.

A Real Man is steady and sobered by responsibility and success and fame.

A Real Man is nerved and stimulated by failure and defeat. A Real Man is a good loser. He never whines. It's always up and come again with him.

A Real Man never talks about what the world owes him, the happiness he deserves, the chance he ought by right to have, and all that. All he claims is the right to live and play the man.

A Real Man is just as honest alone in the dark, in his own room, as he is in public.

A Real Man does not want pulls, tips, and favors. He wants work and honest wages.

A Real Man is loyal to his friend and guards his reputation as his own.

A Real Man is dependable. His simple word is as good as his Bible oath.

A Real Man does a little more than he promises.

A Real Man does not want something for nothing, so the get-rich-quick people cannot use him.

A Real Man honors a woman, any woman. He cannot hurt a woman, physically or morally. He sticks to his wife. He can be loyal, even if it becomes impossible to love.

A Real Man minds his own business. He does not judge other people.

A Real Man always has an excuse for others, never for himself. He is patient and charitable to them, to himself he is strict.

A Real Man is glad to live, and not afraid to die.

A Real Man never hunts danger, and never dodges it when he ought to meet it.

A Real Man is—well, he is a Real Man, the finest, best, noblest, most refreshing thing to find on all the green earth, unless it be a Real Woman.—Frank Crane.

tate business on a high and substantial plane as it has done in other cities where honestly carried out. With the organization of this real estate exchange both buyer and seller will be guaranteed a square deal in every way. The organization will be incorporated, thus making it of more permanent benefit.

To show the kind of organization proposed the following extract is taken from the proposed constitution as drawn up for submission and ratification at the Friday night meeting:

"The name of this corporation shall be Glendale Realty Board.

The object—"The object of this corporation and the purposes for which it is formed are:

"To secure for its members the benefit of united effort and concentrated power, to the end that the evils and annoyances connected with the transaction of business in real estate brokerage, shall be abated; to promote good fellowship and fair dealing in such business; to protect both its members and the public in general from irresponsible, unprincipled and dishonest dealers in real estate; to promote the enactment of legislation for the protection of property rights and the dealings pertaining thereto; and to do all else in the power of the association and its members, which may tend to the upbuilding, the stability and the dignity of the business of dealing in real estate. This corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit." It is further provided that the membership shall be restricted to those who are actively engaged in the real estate business.

Municipal Affairs

Now is the time for property owners and all residents of Glendale to keep in touch with the municipal affairs of the city. Every resident of an incorporated city should be an interested party to all proceedings of the city, and the only way to become interested is by keeping closely in touch with the doings of the board of trustees whom you have helped to elect to make the laws by which the city is governed. The next regular meeting of the board of trustees will take place at the City Hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Poultry Ranch

Frank Merriken, who has been living on his 320-acre homestead at Llano for two or three years past, recently bought the Chandler ranch of 5 acres, south of Park Ave. and bordering on the west side of the S. P. right of way. Willamette street has been opened through it east and west and Merriken Ave. along the tracks. Mr. Merriken has sold some of the lots on the north side of the tract and will sell others till he reduces the acreage to three, then will put up a home and extensive chicken houses. He aims to establish a regular poultry ranch, keeping several thousand birds, raising the grain for them on the Llano ranch.

Miss Helen M. Steele of 318 Myrtle recently bought two lots in Glendale and is making plans to build on them.

Mrs. E. Virden and daughter of the Tropico Drug Store have moved from 131 West Eulalia to Los Angeles.

Considerable hustling was done this forenoon to get enough signatures to nominating petitions for candidates in the Freeholders' election, which comes on Sept. 28th. Petitions had to be filed by noon today.

Since the boy bicycle riders were deprived of their race course on Central avenue and Hawthorne they have constructed a much larger one on the Childs tract just east of Glendale avenue, between Elk and Lomita.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman of Peoria, Ill., will be pleased to know that they will spend the coming winter in Southern California, having taken an apartment in Hollywood for six months. Mrs. Bowman was formerly Miss Mabel G. Smith, for many years assistant cashier of the Bank of Glendale.

C. W. Spickerman of 355 Salem has had rather an annoying experience of late. He recently returned from a long eastern trip and thought he would build a home at once, having sold his before he and his wife started east. He has made deposits on two lots, only to find some other real estate man had sold them. He is still looking.

Aged Secret Discovered

Since Columbus crossed the ocean blue the world had sought in vain, until last year, for the tree that produces the caciue-carey wood, which wood, though few of us have learned the fact, is one of the strongest, most durable, most beautiful woods that botany can boast.

When Christopher visited Central America local "caciques," or kinglets, were wielding sceptres made of "caciue" wood, called "caciue-carey," or royal turtle wood, later because of its resemblance to the mottled shell of a sea turtle. It was dark red wood, harder than mahogany, but it could readily be worked. It would not crack or warp. It exhibited remarkable strength without brittleness, and it firmly refused to decay. But it appeared only as the heart wood of decayed trunks which the natives would not, or could not identify. Feminine and American curiosity discovered the secret fifteen months ago, when Mrs. S. P. Verner of Christobal, in the Canal Zone, asked her husband for the name of an agreeable-looking tree in a Panama village. As an experienced husband, he doubtless answered promptly, "Splufus niger," but as a curious botanist he explored the stranger with a knife until he found within its center the mysterious "caciue-carey."—New York Evening Post.

Coats Have Silver Lining

By "Marjorie"

(Written for the United Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Every coat has its silver lining, and the few coats that don't have silver linings have something even better, a gold or brocade lining. Nor is it only coats that conceal this inner beauty. The entire fashion world seems concentrated on the subject of beautifully ornate linings and accessories.

Fur and fabric coats especially revel in linings and trimmings that represent almost the sum total of the garment. Metallic cloths of gold and silver; silks, satins and velvets of luxurious softness and wonderful coloring; burruffed and puffed chiffons and tissues, even fluffy marabouts, adorn the inner side of fashion's favorite garments.

While silk patterns are large and bright, the designs and colors are so skillfully combined that a rare artistic effect is given. Dull maroons, cherry, deep purples, brick or mahogany, and rich emerald greens are favorite backgrounds. Designs are largely conventional and the blushing rose or modest violet is born to blush unseen this year as far as designers are concerned. Combinations of golden-brown with gold are conspicuous in both fur and fabric coats, possibly because brown or cochineal is one of the season's leading colors. Many expensive wraps are lined with a gold metallic cloth veiled in gold chiffon, or a silver metallic lining.

SIX DISTINGUISHED NURSES

Six American nurses have just been given the Florence Nightingale medal, the highest distinction possible to their profession. The award was made by the international committee of the Red Cross in recognition of services rendered during and since the war.

Ordinarily but one nurse can be nominated annually in each country for this decoration, but the awards were held up during the war, making it possible to make the six now. Thirty-five nurses of other countries were decorated.

There is no question of the merit of these young women. Each one contributed nobly to that heroic chapter written by the Red Cross nurses of America during the war. Each one served in positions of grave responsibility and danger. America may justly regard them with pride. They may well feel an honest pride in their own records and in the recognition they have received. But after all, the finest thing about it is that these women are but typical of their sisterhood.

These six attained high positions which brought them honor, but the thing that made them great is the spirit of selfless service, and this they share with every tireless little nurse who patters up and down the corridors at home, and all the thousands of girls who served faithfully at home and abroad, whose names will never be mentioned and whose only decoration is the blessing in some dough-boy's heart. That spirit is a thing more priceless than any medal, and it is the thing which every good nurse gives freely, without thought of reward, every day, in war or peace.—Long Beach Telegram.

Sometimes there is a difference between saying that a man has an automobile and saying that he owns one.

It seems like a waste of effort for government bulletins to tell the public what happened to it a month before.

Uncle Sam Stands High

Just where the United States stands in relationship to the world is pointed out by the New York Curb News which suggests the "knockers" be presented with these facts that America has:

6 per cent of the world's population.
7 per cent of the world's land.
20 per cent of the world's gold.
25 per cent of all wheat grown.
33 per cent of the world's silver.
40 per cent of the world's railroads.
40 per cent of the world's steel and iron.
52 per cent of the world's coal.
60 per cent of all cotton grown.
66 per cent of the world's oil.
70 per cent of the world's copper.
75 per cent of all corn grown.
80 per cent of the world's automobiles.

Previous to 1914, we owed England so much money that the annual interest was 3 hundred million dollars. Now England is paying us 150 million dollars a year interest. Before the war, we owed about 4 billion dollars abroad. Today the net indebtedness of Europe to America is 10 billion dollars. America is now the richest nation and the financial center of the world.

Before the war, England was the greatest ship-owning nation. After 1920, America will have twice as many ships as England.

will be veiled in silver chiffon corded with coral.

The beauty of little trifles is emphasized in dresses. In line and material the dresses are extremely simple, being cut on the loose and straight chemise lines and of ordinary materials as serge, tricotine, or gabardine. But one gown may hold ten or twenty yards of gorgeously colored wool wound around in some intricate pattern. Or literally yards of Indian-hued beads may trickle from it. Perhaps its reason for a three-figured price tag will be centered about the waist, where gleams a girdle buckled with real jade or onyx.

A new fad is the use of about five-inch-wide bandings of various colored braids, all sewn together until the effect is that of an Oriental-striped grosgrain ribbon. These bandings circumnavigate the skirts or finish the neck and sleeves. Real ribbons are more elaborate than ever. Ribbon counters resemble an Arabian Nights bazaar. Duvetyn entrusted with oil painted designs is a ribbon innovation, and every conceivable combination of fabric and color is used. These ribbons are used for suit and dress vests, camisoles, dress bandings, bags, and even blouses. Batik ribbons in sufficient width for the making of a blouse are offered. Batik blouses, by the way, are as popular as in their heyday and many new and beautiful designs are offered. This form of Japanese art seems here to stay.

POSAN, Poland. (By Mail)—No Polish name during the past quarter century was better known, either in Poland or America, than that of Modjeska, the famous Shakespearian actress, who was exiled by Russia from her native land because of her too ardent patriotism, but who continued to fight for Poland in her own way during her long artistic career in the United States.

Although she died before Poland's independence was finally won, Modjeska never gave up hope that her country would be free. And today though she is no longer in the fight her family here in Poland are foremost among the leaders who are carrying on the work of rebuilding their country after five years of devastating war.

The day the first American Red Cross relief train entered Poland, it was met by a group of young children, led by a young lady, all carrying armfuls of flowers "because there was nothing else left to offer the Americans." The girl was Modjeska's niece, and the children some of the war orphans she had already begun to care for.

In Posen the family of Chlapowski (Modjeska's real name having been the Countess Chlapowski) is at present devoting itself entirely to the care of refugee war orphans, hundreds of whom, gathered up by the American Red Cross in all parts of the country, are sent to Posen to be placed in homes and institutions. Recently a large new refuge for these unfortunate children, many of whom have lost all trace of their people in their wanderings across half of Russia, has been opened by two nieces of Modjeska.

At the beautiful country estate of the Chaplowskis near Posen, where Modjeska in the days before her exile used to rest and rehearse her famous roles of "Juliet" and "Mary, Queen of Scots," hundreds of refugee children, clothed in American Red Cross clothing, even to pinafores and shoes, will enjoy fresh air and outdoor delights this summer.

Immigration Record

Familiar conditions before the war are brought to mind by the announcement that all immigration records since the conflict were broken at Ellis Island last week. Arrivals for the seven days totaled 18,691, compared with an average of more than 25,000 a week in 1907.

Renewal of the rush from Europe to this country shows that the United States holds unbroken its position as the land of opportunity. However, this rush should find Americans more critical than usual. While still maintaining the attitude of sharing opportunity with the worthy—those who come here in good faith from other countries with minds made up to become American citizens and having qualities for it—experience with a number of ingrates during the war and since not only justifies, but demands, strictest examination of all who come now.

We are inclined to believe that "breaking of immigration records" will not appeal as strongly to this country as formerly. Just now the big thing is to Americanize the aliens we have.

The world would wobble less if it worked more.

Who can remember when it meant something when they called them nickelodeons?

Has Horse Entered

DONCASTER, Eng., Sept. 8. (United Press.)—The race for the St. Leger Stakes, the last of the season's races for classic three-year-olds was run today over the customary one mile and three-quarters track. Betting covered a wide range and despite the presence of the Derby winner, Major G. Loder's Spion Kop, in the field, the event was considered very open. Lord Derby's Archic, second in the Derby, was fancied to turn the tables on his Epsom conqueror, while W. Raphael's Alenby, which broke down while going well in the same race, was reported as fit as ever it had been in its life.

King George had a nice-looking filly named Lemonade, which was expected to run well, and several others were backed by "knowing" circles. The race was worth $30,000 to the winner.

Latest Operatic Find

The new American contralto, Jeanne Gordon, hailed by all the critics as the New York Metropolitan Opera Company find of the year, has made a Columbia Record of the "Madrigal of May" from the Barrymores' famous play The Jest. She has also sung for Columbia Records this month "Mon coeur s'ouvre a ta voix," Delilah's seductive aria from Saint-Saens' Samson and Delilah.

Oscar Seagle, baritone, sings of carefree childhood days in his solo "The Barefoot Trail," and of love's longing in that sweet Scotch ballad "Lassie o' Mine."

The Ponselle sisters, Rosa, sensational dramatic soprano of the New York Metropolitan Opera Company, and her gifted sister Carmela, make a new song out of that old Scotch favorite "Comin' Thro' the Rye" with their brilliant coloratura vocalization of this ballad.

GENEROSITY

Generosity is one of the finest sentiments of the human heart, but the person who gives with a string to what he gives ought to keep the account under the head of "Self-Gratification." Often he is really trying to drive a sharp bargain and win a double profit. He wants the warm glow of having done a virtuous act. In addition, he thinks it the least return that can be made that he shall regulate the life of the one he has befriended.

We have heard long complaints of ingratitude because a boy who has been sent through college at the expense of a wealthy man had later refused to enter the profession on which his benefactor's heart was bent. Through four years the young fellow had let his banker lay out the course he should study. He had done good work in them. But when it came to the rest of his life, he found the price too high.

If a man bargains with a friend to do exactly as he tells him, he is within his rights. But he cannot call his bargain generosity. Yet that is precisely the attitude of many who give money or other help because it is the most gratifying way they can spend it and then talk of ingratitude if they have not bought a human soul.

BANK DEPOSITS INDICATE THRIFTY NATION

Early in life children should learn habits of industry or they will acquire habits of idleness.

One person out of five in the United States has acquired the banking habit.

The records show 20,380,350 accounts are carried on the books of national banks alone.

Nearly half as many more had accounts in state banks, savings banks, trust companies and building and loan associations. War loan campaigns in the United States familiarized people with the function of banking and they not only absorbed billions of Liberty bond and Victory notes, but cultivated the habit of doing business with banks. That they have increased their deposits therein is a development of high significance.

Individual and demand deposits in national banks foot up $13,533,908,000, an increase of $1,701,129,000 compared with the figures a year ago.

It is encouraging that bank deposits should increase during a period of high prices and extravagant living.—Santa Ana Register.
